A

oh my lucky number's been rolling all summer

D

and when the sun shines, i celebrate

E

the beauty in life - it's my duty in life

A

'cause the rhythm of change will carry on beating

D

i'll take these blue skies, however fleeting

E

it might be too late tomorrow...

C#m D E F#m

sometimes i get into it

C#m D E F#m

but others, i can't stand the waiting -

Bm C#m D(E bass)

freetime

A

so long afternoons would go up in balloons

Bm

as we killed our time just watching it die

E

your father, my son, would turn in his urn

C#m D E F#m

and sometimes i get into it

C#m D E F#m

but others, i can't stand the waiting -

Bm C#m E

freetime

Solo-

Dm G Dm G G7

C

allowing for some change, i'll carry on mundane

F

around the corner, await simple pleasures

G

my beautiful wife in her beautiful life

C

to the rhythm of change we'll carry on walking

F

the hills of glenrosa stand in our future

C

there's beauty in life, yes there's beauty in life
